

Under 18s Code of Conduct

As a member of the club you are expected to abide by the following code:

- Arrive for training and competition in good time to prepare properly.
- Members must wear correctly adjusted and fitted suitable kit (including helmets) and clothing for all cycling activity sessions, this may also mean having wet / cold weather spare kit as well.
- Members should always warm up and cool down properly.
- All riders must ride within the rules and follow any instruction from officials, coaches, assistants or helpers where those instructions are in the spirit of this code.
- Members must respect officials, coaches, assistants and helpers. Riders must respect their decisions at events and races.
- Be a good sport. Appreciate all good performances or attempts, whether they are made at a race meeting or coaching session, by your fellow members or members from other clubs.
- All members must control their temper. It is not acceptable to verbally abuse or physically abuse officials, coaches, assistants, helpers and other riders. It is not acceptable to deliberately distract or provoke another rider.
- Work equally hard for yourself and your club.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all officials, coaches assistants / helpers and participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- All members must pay fees promptly.
- Youth and junior members are not allowed to smoke or drink alcohol at club organised events or whilst representing the club.

Under 18s Code of Conduct

- Members are not allowed to act in a manner that would bring the club or themselves into disrepute.
- Treat all participants in cycling as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another participant.
- Cooperate with your club officials, coaches, club mates and opponents. Without them there would be no coaching sessions, events, competition or club.
- Thanks officials, coaches, assistants and helpers, and also opponents after any session or competition.
